

we would like to encourage you to not implement any rules that would jeopardize the programming we get on K-LOVE. We value the balance this station brings to the airwaves of our community, providing family-safe programming that makes a real difference in people's lives. It is advantageous to the community to maintain this balance.